GENERAL INFORMATION

Registration

The Registration Area for the Annual Meeting will be located on the Convention Level (two floors below the Lobby), and will be open most hours during the Meeting. Please register as soon as possible after checking in at the hotel.

If you have pre-registered you will need to pick up your name badge at this area. The official Annual Meeting Badge is used to admit you to the Annual Meeting. Participants are requested to wear the Badge throughout the Meeting.

Meeting Rooms

Meeting rooms for each session are designated with a prefix indicating the floor of the Hotel. Solar suites are located on floors one through five.

L = Lobby level
T = Terrace level
C = Convention level

Rooms on the Lobby and Convention levels are shown on the floor plans on pages 17-19.

Exhibits

Exhibits are located on the Convention level near the Registration area. Exhibits will be open during the following hours:

Thursday, 24 October — 10:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Friday, 25 October — 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Saturday, 26 October — 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Publications of CSR Societies will be available in the Exhibit Hall.

Abstracts

Papers on the Program are identified as follows: A = AAR, R = SSSR, S = SBL. Abstracts of papers read in Section meetings will be found in the books of abstracts of each of the Societies. Each registrant will receive a copy of the Book of Abstracts of the Society to which he or she belongs. Additional copies of the volumes will be on sale in the Registration Area.

Seminars

Membership in AAR and SBL Seminars and similar groups is by invitation upon application to the Chairperson. Auditors are welcome at all sessions so far as space permits.

AAR Program Papers

In the AAR program there are asterisks (*) beside the titles of papers that have been preprinted. The books of preprinted papers are listed on the last page of this program and can be obtained by use of the order form provided there. Sessions having preprinted papers will often presuppose prior reading; those planning to attend these sessions are encouraged to order the preprinted papers before the Annual Meeting.

SBL Seminar Papers

Except where otherwise indicated, papers discussed but not read at SBL Seminars and at some Group seminars and Consultations are printed in the books of Seminar Papers. These have been distributed to registered Seminar members. Additional copies are on sale at the Scholars' Press booth.

TOIL/Placement

An office for placement notices will be maintained in the State Room on the Terrace level.

The October issue of TOIL (Teaching Opportunities Information Listing) will be available at the Meeting.

Candidates seeking interviews and Institutions with job openings are encouraged to leave messages in the TOIL office. No interview facilities are available in the office but ample space will be provided for posting notices.

Message Board

A message board will be located in the Registration Area throughout the meeting. The location will not be staffed, but all are invited to leave messages there, and participants are urged to consult the board regularly.

PERSC Consultation II

Nicholas Piediscalzi of the Public Education Religion Studies Center will conduct a consultation for workshop and teacher education program leaders on Wednesday, October 23, 7:30 - 10:00 p.m., and Thursday, October 24, 9:00 - 11:30 a.m., in L Olympic (356). The first session will be entitled "Review of Teacher Education Programs, Certification Programs, and Workshops," and the second "Prospects and Resources for Teacher Education Programs and Workshops."

There will be a registration fee of $5.00.

Interested persons should write for details to Nicholas Piediscalzi, Public Education Religion Studies Center, Wright State University, Dayton, Ohio 45431.

Breakfast Discussions

Close to 80 breakfast discussions are planned by AAR and SSSR. Each breakfast group is limited to 10 persons, including the author of the paper. Seats may be obtained on a first come, first served basis (see pre-registration form on p. 132). Tickets may also be obtained at the meeting but choice will inevitably be limited. If you have paid for your ticket in advance and have also pre-registered, your ticket will be handed to you upon registration. Printed copies of papers to be discussed will be available only if furnished in quantity by the author.

Folger Library Session

A special session, including a reception, will be held at the Folger Shakespeare Library on Friday from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. (see page 47 below). Jointly sponsored by the AAR and the American Society for Reformation Research, the session will focus on the theme, "Perspectives on Calvin."

Where to Eat

The Washington Hilton features the well known Four Oaks restaurant as well as a coffee shop, both on the Lobby Level. A list of eating places in the vicinity will be distributed at the Annual Meeting Registration Desk. A special snack bar will be in operation on the Terrace Level throughout the meeting.

Sightseeing

Washington abounds with places to visit. The Gray Line operates sightseeing buses, with ticket offices and departure locations on the Terrace Level of the Washington Hilton.

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF RELIGION

The American Academy of Religion is a society of college and university professors and others engaged in teaching and research in the field of religion. Its purpose is to stimulate scholarship, foster research and promote learning in the complex of disciplines that constitute religion as a field of inquiry.

Publications of the Academy and the convening of annual national and regional meetings implement these aims. Publications include the quarterly Journal of the American Academy of Religion, Journal of Religious Ethics, monographs in the Studies in Religion Series, and the Dissertation Series. The structure of the Annual meeting of the Academy reflects the varied scholarly concerns of its members and provides for the development of both special interests and cross-disciplinary conversations in the general sessions, sections, groups and seminars. These program units, formed in response to interests of the members, change to keep pace with movement in the field of religion.

The Academy is also a professional society keeping its membership informed of developing programs, newly available materials, and opportunities for study grants and research funds. The Academy is affiliated with the Council on the Study of Religion and cooperates in the publication of its Bulletin, a professional news magazine, and also in the publication of a job registry in the field of religion.

In addition to those whose interests are in the area of religion, many members whose primary professional identification is with societies serving other disciplines find membership in the Academy important in maintaining cross-disciplinary communication and in providing an overview of the field of religion.

SOCIETY OF BIBLICAL LITERATURE

Founded 1880

The object of the SOCIETY is to stimulate the critical investigation of the classical biblical literatures, together with other related literature, by the exchange of scholarly research both in published form and in public forum. The SOCIETY endeavors to support those disciplines and sub-disciplines pertinent to the illumination of the literatures and religions of the ancient Near Eastern and Mediterranean regions, such as the study of ancient languages, textual criticism, history, and archaeology.

To these ends the SOCIETY sponsors:

SSSR SOCIETY FOR THE SCIENTIFIC STUDY OF RELIGION

The Society for the Scientific Study of Religion was founded in 1949 by students of religion and of social science. Its purpose is to stimulate and communicate significant research on religious institutions and religious experience.

Membership is open to students and to scholars interested in the application of scientific method to the study of religion. Present members represent a wide range of academic disciplines. The majority are college and university teachers of religion, philosophy, sociology, psychology, and anthropology. A smaller proportion are administrators, parish clergymen and practicing physicians. The officers of the Society are elected by the membership.

The Society for the Scientific study of Religion currently counts some 1700 members in the United States and in some 30 foreign countries. The Society provides them with a forum for the discussion of basic issues involved in the examination of the nature and function of religion in human personality and society. The Journal for the Scientific Study of Religion, the Annual Meeting, and regional meetings provide the principal settings for this forum. The Society's Journal, which is now found in 1100 libraries in the United States and abroad is widely regarded as a preeminent source of material on the scientific study of religion.

The Society is also a participant in the Annual Meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, to which our members are invited to present papers.

RELIGIOUS RESEARCH ASSOCIATION

The Religious Research Association has four goals: 1) To increase the understanding of the function of religion in individuals and society through the application of the methods and knowledge of the sciences; 2) To promote the availability, circulation, interpretation, and use of the findings of religious research among religious bodies and other interested groups; 3) To cooperate with other professional societies, groups, and individuals interested in the study of religion; and 4) To promote the professional development of religious researchers and of users of research findings.

In order to implement these goals the Association publishes the Review of Religious Research three times a year, holds an annual meeting in conjunction with the Society for the Scientific Study of Religion, and sponsors several regional meetings each year. Annual dues $12.00.

ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSORS AND RESEARCHERS IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Association is a society of professors and researchers in religious education in institutions of higher learning, denominational and ecumenical organizations, and other agencies.

Originating as the Professors and Research Section of the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches, the Association became an independent organization in 1970. Since then it has expanded to include persons affiliated with organizations representing a broad spectrum of interests and religious traditions in the United States, Canada, and Europe.

The purpose of the Association is to foster scholarly inquiry and professional development in the field, and to provide a forum for the interchange of research and experience related thereto.

The Association's annual meetings provide opportunity for presentations to receive critical response and general discussion from diverse viewpoints represented among the membership, and for members who share similar concerns to explore these in greater depth through special interest groups. Annual meetings are held in conjuction with one or more professional societies representing cognate fields, thereby providing a valuable context of interdisciplinary enrichment. During the year contact among members is maintained through a semi-annual Newsletter.

In addition to full membership, which is open to professors and researchers in religious education, associate membership is available to those retired from the field and to persons engaged in teaching or research in related fields. Student membership is open to persons pursuing graduate degrees in the field.

NOTES

SOCIETY MEMBERSHIP AND PUBLICATIONS

The Council on the Study of Religion is a federation of Learned Societies in the field of Religion.

Individuals do not join the Council directly but apply for membership in the constituent Societies which concern themselves with the needs and interests of the Member.

Members who already belong to one or more Societies might consider applying for membership in additional Societies and thereby receive the publications and participate in the other projects of these Societies.

All institutions and those individuals whose work lies outside the membership guidelines of a Society are classed as SUBSCRIBERS. The Subscribers receive the major publications of a Society.

The Bulletin of the CSR is a newsletter issued five times per year. It is sent automatically to members of the Societies (except ASCH and SSSR at present) at no additional fee. Individuals not otherwise included and all institutions may subscribe at $4.00 per year.

The CSR acts as the chief business office for most of the Societies. Dues are collected for AAR, ASCE, ATLA, CTS, CTSA, and SBL through this office. In addition, orders for publications are processed and all member and subscriber lists kept up to date. Changes of address should be sent directly to the CSR office.

The Council is becoming deeply involved in publication in the field of Religion. A Series of Bibliographic Tools was launched in 1973. In addition, a comprehensive purchase plan for libraries is contemplated.

With the publication of a Directory and the beginning of project TOIL (Teaching Opportunities Information Listing) the Council is taking steps to aid scholars and institutions in the current job crisis.

HOW ARE MAIN AND MARGINAL RELIGIOUS GROUPS INFLUENCING EACH OTHER?

Explore the ways with Contemporary Religious Movements: A Wiley-Interscience Series, edited by Irving I. Zaretsky

1. CHANGING PERSPECTIVES IN THE SCIENTIFIC STUDY OF RELIGION

Edited by Allan W. Eister, Wellesley College

Important yet subtle transformations are occurring in the scientific approach to the study of religion. This book of authoritative essays by 18 sociologists, anthropologists, and psychologists objectively reexamines the contemporary religious experience, its methods, and its goals. The essayists include: David Bakan • Ralph W. Burhoe • Johannes Fabian • Richard K. Fenn • Ward E. Goodenough • Philip E. Hammond • David O. Moberg • Benjamin Nelson • Talcott Parsons • Donald R. Ploch • Paul W. Pruyser • Roland Robertson • W. Clark Roof • David N. Ruth • Clarence H. Snelling • Victor W. Turner • Oliver R. Whitley.

1974 approx. 384 pages $14.50

2. TRANCE, HEALING, AND HALLUCINATION

Three Field Studies in Religious Experience

By Felicitas D. Goodman, Denison University, Jeanette H. Henney, Capital University, and Esther Pressel, Colorado State University

Is there a connection between altered states of consciousness, healing, hallucination, and the religious experience? These three unusual field studies, composed of interrelated research, suggest there is. Using a psycho-anthropological approach to the analysis of the Umbanda in Brazil, two fundamentalist groups in St. Vincent, and an Apostolic church in the Yucatán, the authors not only present a view of startling religious behavior, but also a graphic picture of the social and cultural context in which it occurs.

1974 388 pages $12.50

3. HEBREW CHRISTIANITY: THE THIRTEENTH TRIBE

By B. Z. Sobel, Haifa University, Israel

"Hebrew Christianity"—an evangelical movement represented today by such groups as Jews for Jesus—has suddenly come alive again. Its mission: to reach and convert tens of thousands of Jews in America, even in Israel. How did it develop? Will it succeed and with what effects? From research interviews with many Jews and Christians, and from his own study of the movement's origin and history, sociologist B. Z. Sobel takes a hard look at these pertinent questions.

4. ON THE MARGIN OF THE VISIBLE: SOCIOLOGY, THE ESOTERIC, AND THE OCCULT

Edited by Edward A. Tiryakian, Duke University

Are religious groups founded on esoteric doctrines irrelevant to the history of Western society and thought? This anthology of classic occult writings challenges that attitude. It clearly demonstrates that the esoteric is a legitimate, important area of social analysis. Among topics covered are: gnosticism, theosophy, witchcraft—and what social scientists are now saying about them and their impact on contemporary society.

1974 364 pages $9.95

5. HARE KRISHNA AND THE COUNTERCULTURE

By J. Stillson Judah, Graduate Theological Union

Why have so many young people fled even the most liberal religious institutions to adopt the Hare Krishna way of life? In this descriptive yet analytical study, Judah discusses the relationship between the Hare Krishna Movement and the counterculture, the devotees' protests against institutionalized religion, and how their new faith has given them meaning and freed them from drugs and alienation. Based on personal interviews and questionnaires, the work also shows how dominant American religions may become inadequate to solve the West's rapidly developing social problems.

1974 approx. 250 pages $10.95 (tent.)

Biography as Theology

How Life Stories Can Remake Today's Theology

James William McClendon, Jr.

Dr. McClendon proposes to use biography for more than merely presenting models of exemplary living. By looking at the lives of significant persons, he discovers a theology that is adequate to account for the kind of lives which they lived. Four persons are considered: Dag Hammarskjöld, Martin Luther King, Jr., Clarence Jordan, and Charles Ives. Appendix. Cloth, $13.95; paper, $4.95

Death and Eastern Thought

Understanding Death in Eastern Religions and Philosophies

Frederick H. Holck, editor

Specialists in Eastern thought discuss ideas on diet, caste systems, reincarnation, hell, heaven, and proper life-style. Major attention is given to India with sections on China and Japan. Appealing illustrations from legends, quotes from literature, and examination of artifacts add insight into Eastern tradition from the Vedic Period through Gandhi. Cloth, $12.95; paper, $4.95

Jesus: Inspiring and Disturbing Presence

Marinus de Jonge; translated by John E. Steely

An intriguing consideration of some of the more controversial interpretations of the life and teachings of Jesus. A dedicated biblical scholar, Dr. de Jonge directs exegetical studies toward a contemporary gospel. Cloth, $10.95; paper, $4.95

To Die with Style!

Marjorie Casebier McCoy

A unique approach to death- and life-styles inspired by Carl Jung's statement to the effect that we must renew the meaning of life at each life stage until we reach the achievement of death. The book is divided into three sections: awareness of death; imagination (devoted to the pros and cons of six typical life-and-death styles); and the triumphant achievement of death. Includes suggestions for further reading and index. $5.95

Christian Ethics for Black Theology

The Politics of Liberation

Major J. Jones

What can Jesus say to the black man in his struggle for freedom and full recognition in a pro-white society? Christian love, strength, and fellowship are important assets to black liberation, asserts Dr. Jones. Encompassing a broad scope of black history, theology, and contemporary problems faced by black Christians, he succeeds in bringing home the relevance of Christian ethics for both personal and political liberation. Paper, $4.50

Literary Interpretations of Biblical Narratives

(The Bible in Literature Courses)

Edited by Kenneth R. R. Gros Louis with James S. Ackerman and Thayer S. Warshaw

The trend toward elective courses in public schools and mounting interest in the Bible as an academic study prompted this collection of literary analyses. Prepared by 10 different writers, all sensitive to the literary qualities of the Bible, this volume is the first of six produced under the auspices of the Institute on Teaching the Bible in Secondary English, Indiana University. Paper, $6.95

THE THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATIONS OF THE MORMON RELIGION, by Sterling M. McMurrin. In a comparative study that differentiates Mormon doctrine from classical Christian theology, this eminent philosopher exhibits the distinctive character of Mormon theology that resides especially in the finitistic conception of God and the denial of the traditional doctrines of original sin and salvation by grace. "McMurrin's book is without equal and is certainly the most significant work available on Mormon metaphysics and theology" — JOURNAL OF RELIGIOUS THOUGHT. Paper, $3.50.

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL AND ETHICAL ASPECTS OF MORMON GROUP LIFE, by E. E. Ericksen, Introduction by Sterling M. McMurrin. In this brilliant monograph — originally published by the University of Chicago Press in 1922 — the author applies the principles of functional psychology to Mormon history, conceived as a process of mental and social adaptation to great problems or crises. Dr. Ericksen studied with the great theorists of American pragmatism, Tufts, Mead, and Ames. Cloth, $6.50.

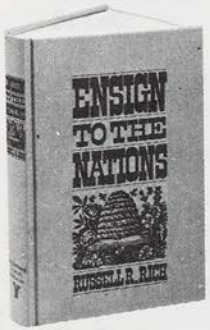

BRIGHT ESSENCE: STUDIES IN MILTON'S THEOLOGY, by W. B. Hunter, C. A. Patrides, and J. H. Adamson. ". . . an elegant, scholarly work!" — THE CHRISTIAN CENTURY. "Serious students of Milton will be grateful for this collection of essays by the leading opponents of the view that the heresy of Arianism dominates Milton's major work. . . . All students of Milton should have Bright Essence available to them" — CHOICE. ". . . it is clear [the authors] have discovered a new Milton who deserves a voice. This collection will be a significant aid to students of literature and intellectual history . . ." — REVIEW OF METAPHYSICS. Cloth, $8.50.

MORMONISM'S NEGRO POLICY: SOCIAL AND HISTORICAL ORIGINS, by Stephen G. Taggart. "Mr. Taggart's book cannot be characterized as an attack on Church policy. Rather, it is an examination of historical evidence that demonstrates, as [he] wrote, that 'The Negro policy and its attendant teachings all developed on an informal basis in response to historical circumstances rather than through revelation' " — NEW YORK TIMES. Paper, $2.50.

The University of Utah Press, Bldg. 513, Dept. CR, Salt Lake City, Utah 84112; (801) 581-6771. Please prepay orders from individuals.

Some Books Worth Looking Into.

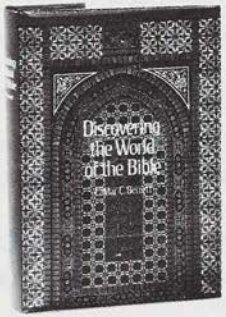

Look into them at the combined book exhibit, or write for information.

Ensign to the Nations by Russell R. Rich is an informative history of the Latter-day Saint Church from 1846 to the present, beginning with the expulsion of the Mormon people from Nauvoo, Illinois. Written as a textbook for LDS Church history courses, this book is equally useful to the lay reader or interested historian. 1972. 663 pages. $7.95 cloth.

Confrontation at Worms by De Lamar Jensen is a dramatic portrayal of the events surrounding the Edict of Worms of 1521, stressing Martin Luther's struggles first with himself, then with the papacy, and finally with the empire. Contains the first modern translation of an original French edition of the Edict, together with reproductions of beautiful sixteenth-century woodcuts and engravings. 1973. 120 pages. $10.50 cloth.

Discovering the World of the Bible by LaMar C. Berrett is a practical one-volume guide to the biblical countries of the Middle East, containing scriptural references to every known biblical site within these countries. Also includes numerous maps and diagrams of sites and cities, facts on language and culture, and many color and black-and-white photos. Excellent for tourist, teacher or armchair traveler. 1973. 701 pages. $14.95 cloth. $10.95 paper.

Joseph Smith and the Restoration by Ivan J. Barrett is an enlightening record of the Latter-day Saint people from the organization of the LDS Church in 1830 to the exodus from Illinois in 1846. An engaging narrative filled with valuable information for the general reader or historian. 1973. $7.95 cloth.

A Burning Light: The Life and Ministry of John the Baptist, by Robert J. Matthews is a close look at one of the most powerful and courageous men the world has known. Contains an in-depth study of John the Baptist gathered from many sources and written from modern-day perspective. 1972. $4.95 cloth.

For the Theologist

ENCOUNTERING NEW TESTAMENT MANUSCRIPTS:
A Working Introduction to Textual Criticism
by Jack Finegan

A unique and exciting opportunity for the New Testament student . . . to actually see and read portions of the oldest and most important manuscripts. A comprehensive survey of textual criticism provides the background for examining twenty-four photographs of the manuscripts, allowing the student to make his own decision as to the probable reading of the original New Testament text.

208 pages, cloth $10.00s

A THEOLOGY OF THE NEW TESTAMENT
by George Eldon Ladd

"Many have eagerly awaited the publication of Ladd's THEOLOGY OF THE NEW TESTAMENT. . . . Finally, they have received the fruit of his mature scholarship in what seems destined to become the standard text on the subject. Many will welcome a conservative alternative to Bultmann. I take great pleasure in commending this work to all serious students of the New Testament."

—W. Ward Gasque
Regent College, Vancouver, B.C.

648 pages, cloth $12.50

THEOLOGICAL DICTIONARY OF THE OLD TESTAMENT
Volume I abh-badhadh
G. Johannes Botterweck and Helmer Ringgren, Editors
Translated by John T. Willis

The first of a projected twelve-volume reference work consisting of scholarly articles on important biblical words, treated theologically and philologically, and presented in alphabetical order. Though similar in many respects to "Kittel," TDOT gives more attention to "semantic fields"—clusters of words describing related ideas.

512 pages, cloth $18.50

THE EVANGELICAL FAITH
Volume I* Prolegomena:
The Relation of Theology to Modern Thought-Forms
by Helmut Thielicke
Translated and Edited by Geoffrey W. Bromiley

A monumental contribution to contemporary theology in which Helmut Thielicke presents a unified picture of "The Evangelical Faith." In this first volume he lays the foundation for a dogmatic system by addressing challenges to the Christian faith found in modern philosophy. Volumes II and III, currently in preparation, will treat the doctrines of God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Church, and Eschatology.

480 pages, cloth $12.50

GAUTAMA THE BUDDHA:
An Essay in Religious Understanding
by Richard Henry Drummond

In a significant addition to studies in Buddhism, a Christian theologian discusses the relationships between Gautama's teaching and the basic teachings of Christianity.

"Brilliantly written . . . scholarship without show. I congratulate the author."

Philosophy of God, and Theology

by BERNARD J. F. LONERGAN, S. J. One of the greatest present-day Catholic thinkers explores the relationships of religious experience, philosophy of God, and systematic theology. This volume contains the 1972 St. Michael's lectures given at Gonzaga University, Spokane, together with theological and philosophical questions provoked by the lectures and Lonergan's responses. (Avail. Nov. 18) $4.50

Natural Law and the Ethics of Love

A New Synthesis

by WILLIAM A. SPURRIER. Natural Law insists on principles and morals, and their rational application; the emphasis of Situational Ethics is on love. In a unique approach that combines the two systems, the author creates a significant and helpful guide to understanding complex moral issues and initiating appropriate action, in both personal and public spheres. $5.95

Zen and the Comic Spirit

by CONRAD HYERS. The spirit of Zen is here interpreted as a unique, earthy realization of the comedy of man's situation. Dr. Hyers provides not only an approach to understanding the deep seriousness of Zen Buddhism, but also many fresh ideas about the place of laughter in the religious life. "A fine contribution, unique of its kind, to the literature on Zen Buddhism."—Christmas Humphreys, President, The Buddhist Society (London). Cloth $6.95t; paper $3.95t

Human Liberation in a Feminist Perspective — A Theology

by LETTY M. RUSSELL. Writing from her years of involvement with organizations working for human liberation, Dr. Russell discusses liberation theology as an attempt to reflect upon both the experience of oppression and the action necessary for the creation of a more humane society. "A most profound contribution to a theology of human liberation."—Jürgen and Elisabeth Moltmann. Paper $3.95t

Truth and Dialogue in World Religions
Conflicting Truth-Claims

edited by JOHN HICK. Internationally-known scholars from both East and West have contributed to this lively discussion of what the different religions have to say about the nature of ultimate reality, the modes of divine activity, and the nature and destiny of man. (Avail. Nov. 18) $5.95

Commitment on Campus
Changes in Religion and Values Over Five Decades

by DEAN R. HOGE. Research at thirteen universities and colleges for the years from 1920 to 1970 provides the basis for this study. The result is a new method of interpreting changes in religion and values in America, and a new and more sharply defined picture of religious beliefs and practices among young people. (Avail. Nov. 18) $10

Theology and Body

edited by JOHN Y. FENTON. Based on a conference on Theology and Body at Emory University, Atlanta, this volume has been written to challenge traditional theology and show where it needs to grapple with some subjects it has neglected. Among other topics, it touches upon the women's movement, black religious experience, and the Gay identity movement. $4.95t

In Search of a Responsible World Society
The Social Teachings of the World Council of Churches

by PAUL BOCK. An overview of the body of statements on social issues, comparable to the Roman Catholic social encyclicals, which have been developed by non-Roman Catholic churches in recent decades. "No other book makes available the substance of the most significant reports and pronouncements from the Stockholm Conference (1925) almost to the present."—John C. Bennett (Avail. Nov. 18) $10t

A Black Political Theology

by J. DEOTIS ROBERTS, SR. Pointing out the need for "social salvation" as well as personal salvation, Dean Roberts urges that black churches, which are the only potent, traditionally black institutions, must support black banks and black political leaders, and must teach that the love of Christ is to be applied "horizontally" as well as "vertically." (Avail. Nov. 18) Paper $3.95

God and the Grotesque

by CARL SKRADE. If theology is concerned with the whole predicament of human existence, it must understand and incorporate the sense of the grotesque as it is expressed in current art, literature, theatre and cinema. This critique of the rationalistic basis of Western culture is also a brief for a religion which takes seriously the non-rational, human elements of experience. Cloth $5.95t; paper $2.95t

Reality and Ecstasy
A Religion for the 21st Century

by HARVEY SEIFERT. In this proposal for a reality-based religion for the "unreligious" modern man, Dr. Seifert points out that the greatest ecstasies known to humanity are released only when given a religious dimension, and offers an empirical approach to religion that will, he says, open the way to amazing breakthroughs into new truth. INFORMATION/REGISTRATION

Location and Transportation

All meetings will be held in the Washington Hilton, Connecticut Ave. at Columbia Road, N.W., Washington, D.C. The hotel is served by direct bus transportation from National Airport and also from Dulles. The area bus station and ticket office is located on the Terrace Level of the hotel. Present cost is $2.50 from National and $3.75 from Dulles. A 600 car garage is located under the Hotel.

Hotel Reservations

The enclosed room reservation card should be sent as soon as possible directly to the Washington Hilton. All correspondence regarding accommodations must be conducted directly with the hotel.

Those who wish to share a room with designated persons must include the name of the roommate(s) on the room reservation card. If possible, the reservation cards of the roommates should be mailed to the hotel in a single envelope. The hotel will not undertake to assign roommates.

Pre-Registration

To avoid congestion and undue delays at the Registration Desk, all participants in the meetings are urged to register in advance. All materials will be ready for pre-registrants at the Registration Desk, which will be located on the Convention Level (two floors below the lobby).

A single pre-registration card is used for all groups holding meetings on this occasion. Participants should indicate on the enclosed card each of the societies to which they belong. The card should be sent, together with the appropriate registration fee, as soon as possible to the Executive Office of the Council on the Study of Religion, Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Ontario, N2L 3C5, Canada.

Reception

The major convention Reception is scheduled for Thursday evening, 24 October, 9:30-11:00 p.m. All registered participants are cordially invited to attend. The cost of the food and coffee is included in the registration fee; cocktails are dutch treat.

Other Food Functions

Tickets for the Friday and Saturday morning breakfast sessions will be available at $2.50 each. Please pre-register using the form on page 132. Accommodations are limited, and choices should be made early.

For attendance at all other food functions, arrangements should be made in advance with the sponsoring group listed in the Program.

Membership Applications

For the convenience of prospective new members of any of the major participating groups, application forms are included with this Program and will be available at the Registration Desk during the meetings.

AAR Section Papers

Books of Section Papers for AAR program segments on American Religion, the Academic Study of Religion, Asian Religions/History of Religion, Philosophy of Religion and Theology, and Biblical Literature may be ordered in advance of the Annual Meeting. Please use the Order Form on page 132, and address all orders as directed on the Form.

CSR Bulletin

The October 1974 Bulletin of the Council on the Study of Religion will list any further notices about the Annual Meeting. It will be mailed to members in mid-September.
